

ALM profile areas:

1. Knowledge organization. Theoretical questions and emerging methods and phenomena related to the representation, description and communication of knowledge in diverse environments.
2. Information infrastructures. New technologies and the shaping of information environments and resources. Knowledge, information and data sharing and management practices and structures. Interdisciplinarity, science and technology studies, scholarly communication and bibliometrics
3. Libraries, archives and museums as institutions. Historical, cultural, sociological, critical and contemporary perspectives and issues related to memory institutions. New technologies, learning and literacies in the digital information environment. Information practices, information policies, cultural policies.
4. Cultural heritage and memory institutions. Economic, cultural, political, sociotechnical, and sociomaterial processes related to the preservation of cultural heritage and maintenance of collective memory and identity in diverse contexts.